PASTORAL LETTER

I woke to another dreary day. It was wet, with little to cheer me. What is more, it was the second day of Lent. I am entering this period in introspection when I may become aware of faults in my life that need to change. Although at first this may seem to be a time of self-appraisal that can be a negative experience, it can lead me to jettison practices that are harmful to me and those with whom I live.

Traditionally, we are expected to identify what to 'give up for lent' in order to become better people. Perhaps it would be a more positive experience if we found something to introduce to our living that would make us more productive and unselfish.

When Maundy Thursday has come after the 40 days of Lent, will there have been any significant change in me, and will I have found anything to cheer my mood that I previously described? The weather may well have improved, but what else could have lifted my spirits in a world that currently gets more dangerous every day?

Thankfully, I can read the final page of the story that occurs beyond the 40 days. I will have followed the journey that Jesus took. I will have travelled along the road past his unjust trial and crucifixion according to Roman law. If that is where I finish my Lenten journey, I will remain in my state of despair. It would be as if the resurrection had never happened.

But it has – and this changes everything. There is hope, and we will come to Easter Day knowing that, with the resurrection of Jesus Christ, a new day has dawned. There is hope for the world, and for individuals like me.

A blessed Easter to you all,

Robin Bragg

Breakfast Church on 28th January in the Cart Shed was a very happy occasion, with everyone enjoying bacon buns, overnight oats, and blueberry muffins, with endless coffee to wash it all down. Robin Bragg came to join us and give us his “Thought for the Day” during the short informal service, held after we had eaten our fill and enjoyed a good chatter.

Mothering Sunday is on 10th March at 10.30am, and will be a special service celebrating the importance of mothers in our lives, with posies presented to members of the congregation. Refreshments and Simnel cake afterwards.

Palm Sunday Breakfast Church. On Sunday, 24th March there will be Breakfast Church, starting with breakfast at 9.45 and followed by a short informal service, with palms blessed and handed out. There will be the same delicious spread available (bacon buns, blueberry muffins, overnight oats, coffee and tea) followed by a short, informal service. We are doing this as the church is cold at this time of year, and it's a great way to get together and keep warm. Please come and join us – you will be made very welcome.

Maundy Thursday on 28th March will be a special communion service in the church at 7pm, as part of Holy Week.

Easter Day, on 31st March at 10.30am, will be a service of Holy Communion with hymns. We have Adrian coming to play the organ for us, so lots of rousing Easter hymns. Please come and join us for this service, and enjoy the lovely efforts of the flower ladies who will have decorated the church for Easter. DON'T forget – the clocks change that day!

Welcome Back, Sid

Thanks to Mark, John, and team the SID (Speed Indicator Device) was reinstalled in the centre of the village. The Parish Council are hoping that this will contribute towards reducing the speed of cars through the village.

A Talk on Stonehenge will be held at The Old Cart Shed, Tollard Royal on Friday, 15th March at 7pm, hosted by The Village Social Committee. The mysteries surrounding Stonehenge have inspired, mystified, and confounded people for thousands of years. Why was it built? How was it built? What magic does it hold? Join Olivia, an archaeologist and historian who has worked first-hand at Stonehenge, on a journey through the history of the site, both real and imagined. How was Merlin involved? Is there really a secret bunker beneath the stones full of nuclear weapons? Why is it such a good home for sleeping hares? Who were the Neolithic people who spent centuries building such a spectacular monument? What is the significance of the solstice? How does Stonehenge fit into the wider ancient landscape? All this, and more will be explored, and some of the secrets will be revealed.

Book your seats today! £8 includes a glass of wine and some nibbles; tea & coffee will be available during questions at the end of the talk. Please ring Bonny on 516389 or Marcelle 516438.

Farnham Village Party. Many thanks to the amazing organisers of the Farnham Village Party at Larmer Tree, to which Tollard Royal villagers are always invited – a dozen of us from Tollard enjoyed a very jolly evening with fish and chips, delicious puds, music, dancing and a quiz.

Mothering Sunday falls on Sunday, 10th March this year. There will be a service at 10am, with posies to collect for all Mums of any age, and we will have coffee and home-made biscuits afterwards.

Do come, and bring all generations of the family. It would be great to have some children reading a poem about Mums or motherhood or mother church, so please let Rosamond know if your child could do this.

Easter Day

Chettle will have a family service on Sunday, 31st March at 10.30am, followed by an Easter egg hunt. Do come and celebrate this important day with us. Once again please let Rosamond know if one of the children would like to read something for this service.

Both the above services will be led by Rosamond, and there will be no Holy Communion.

Slide Success

The amazing slideshow by John S and June was completely sold out, and Barbara's cooking most certainly added to the attraction. A fabulous £520 was raised for the organ refurbishment fund!

Rosamond organised a separate raffle at the event and raised £256 for Cancer Research UK (bowel cancer) charity. The top prize of a generous neck, back and shoulders massage at Sarpenela was won by Alice, and Geoff Dove took the Chettle shop hamper home. Well done to all the winners, and THANK YOU to everybody for contributing to such a worthwhile charity!

The Big 2024 Chettle Marmalade Competition

We are back on again this year, with two prizes to be won. One for best pale marmalade, and one for the best dark marmalade. Please get your entries to the shop as soon as you have made the marmalade, and it will be returned to you after the competition – the deadline is the 14th March. Every entry welcome – multiple entries always welcome too. This is purely for fun and enjoyment.

Women of the Dark Skies

After a sell-out series in Autumn 2023 supported by Cranborne Chase AONB, Chettle resident Becky Burchell will be leading four more 'Women of the Dark Skies' events on Fridays 1st, 8th, 15th, 22nd March. This unique storytelling pilgrimage for women will transport you back to join the Durotriges Tribe of the Iron Age, whilst crossing the ancient lands of Chettle at night. Some of the feedback so far... "extraordinary", "masterful storytelling" and "a very sacred experience". To find out more visit: cz5t.short.gy/darkskies

Karesta Women's Circle

Becky Burchell is also hosting a new fortnightly Women's Circle at the wonderful Sarpenela Natural Therapies Centre here in Chettle. Starting on Tuesday, 12th March at 8pm, this will be a warm and welcoming gathering for women to benefit from each other's wisdom, intuition and perspectives. Contact Becky to find out more at becky.burchell@gmail.com or 07816 527873.

Wassail!

We hosted our third Wassail this January, a joyful gathering where we honour our orchards, our land and the wonders of winter. Nearly 100 people met outside St Mary's Church, dressed in handmade cloaks and wild headdresses. Together we sang, told stories and processed through the village, finishing with a roaring, yew log long-fire and a feast of Chettle cider and soup in Laundry Lane Orchard. What better way to beat the January blues?

Dam Jam at Chettle Lodge

On Friday, 9th March, starts 6.30pm. After an incredible turnout for our first ever Chettle Strawberry Dam Jam in December, we are delighted to be welcoming The Baker Brothers back in March. Just like last time, the band will kick off the night, and then members of the audience can come up and play or sing; you can perform solo or with the band, or bring along some musical compadres, and you can all get stuck in! Please email damjamband@gmail.com ahead of the night if you'd like to perform, but if you're feeling brave on the night you can absolutely get involved too. Tickets are £8 each and can be purchased in person from Chettle Village Store – payment by card only please. Ticket price will pay for the band, and any proceeds from the bar will go towards repairs of Chettle Lodge. Alice

WOMEN OF THE DARK SKIES

The Church Electoral Roll is being revised for the Annual Parochial Church Meeting on 12th April. As Electoral Roll Officer, Tim Tustin is carrying this out, which must be completed by 27th March. If you wish to join the electoral roll please contact Tim on 01725 516385 or tpbtustin@gmail.com.

Farnham and Tollard Party. Thanks to all those who had a hand in organising the successful party at Larmer Tree, and to those who provided the range of desserts, which were particularly appreciated.

Allotment Association. By the time you read this the Farnham Allotment Association will have held its AGM and enjoyed a pre-season lunch at the Museum, just one of our social activities held throughout the year.

Our annual “Spring Tidy Up” will be over the weekend of 23rd/24th March from 11:00 am, with refreshments provided on the Saturday. Prospective members can come and see us in action and enjoy a friendly reception. If you fancy lending a hand, come suitably dressed, all volunteers welcome.

The ever popular “Spud in a Bag” competition and Allotment Village BBQ/Picnic will be in August, on Sunday, 11th August. “Spuds” and bags will be on the Winklebury Table from mid- to late-March, at a cost of £3 per Spud. Keep your eyes open and don’t miss out on this fun event, a real highlight, available for members and non-members, experts and beginners, of all ages!

Nick Hodgson. The community is saddened to hear of Nick’s death. Our thoughts and prayers are with Helen and her family.

The Longest Yarn. On Saturday, 23rd March, 11am to 3pm, in Sixpenny Handley Village Hall, Sixpenny Handley commemorates the 80th Anniversary of D-Day, with an exhibition of a craft work made by the village craft group – after this it will go to Normandy to be part of 80 knitted or crocheted pieces from all over the world depicting the D-Day landings, totalling 80 meters, celebrating the 80th Anniversary of the 80 day Battle of Normandy. See a photo below, watch the report at youtu.be/2IDd5VNLoYI, or visit www.thelongestyarn.com for more info.

There's French breakfast and French lunch available, with crepes cooked to order throughout the day. There's also the war film 'The Longest Day', evocative music of the time, Sixpenny Handley's very own Blue Bell Girls performing in the morning and in the afternoon, and an exhibition of uniforms and artefacts. Children and grown-ups can 'have a go' at knitting, crochet and clay modelling, with expert tuition available. The scouts and school are involved, plus a local author who has written a novel set mostly in the Blitz available to share stories and answer questions.

Church Services

Some terms explained
(see back cover)

HC: Holy Communion, also called 'The Eucharist' and, by some, 'Mass'. If taken by a non-ordained person then it is 'by extension'.

BCP: Book of Common Prayer, published in 1662 and still an accepted form of liturgy.

CW: Common Worship. A form of service, launched 2000, which uses modern language.

'Said': no hymns in the service.
